

Dear School District Administrators,

Pogue Construction enjoys our working relationship with Huckabee Architects. We have worked through a variety of challenges and the team from Huckabee has always stood with us to resolve any obstacle the project encountered.

Huckabee is always looking to set a new standard of quality and excellence for each project they are involved with and that makes partnering with them a very positive experience for all those involved. The teams from Huckabee design a quality product, always keeping the Owner's interest the focus. From the design concept, through construction, Huckabee strives to find the balance in meeting the Owner's needs, while remaining cost conscious and quality driven.

I would personally recommend Huckabee for any of your architectural needs. Teamwork and cooperation is valuable to any construction project and Huckabee holds this in the highest regards.

Sincerely,
